Cash deposits prohibitions: Cash deposits are strictly prohibited, also third party deposits or withdrawals are not permissible; the deposit sole source should be originated from you, using a payment method registered in your name, noting that at certain cases, a verification and reconfirmation might be requested from us when we deem necessary, in this case, the request will not go through until the verification process is completed, noting we reserve the right to decline the payment or return it to its source, or keep the amounts held pending the confirmation as we deem necessary.

Country restrictions: Some options are only available to residents of certain countries. INGOT SC LTD is not responsible for any changes by third parties or any other source.

Payment Method Misdirection: In the event that a Customer utilizes a specific payment method for deposits and subsequently demonstrates a withdrawal pattern indicating an intention to divert withdrawals to an alternative payment method, we hereby retain the prerogative to decline processing the withdrawal request. Furthermore, we possess the authority to impose escalating fees, potentially reaching a maximum of 15% of withdrawal amount, upon the Customer. The maximum percentage may be increased in the future based on INGOT SC LTD's own discretion. Additionally, we maintain the right to deduct any incurred fees from the Customer at a later point should we deem it necessary such fees may include payment allocation fees whereby you will reimburse us for costs incurred with payment service providers (PSPs) to allow for such transaction.

Suspicious activity: In the event that a Customer establishes an account with INGOT SC LTD and subsequently exhibits any act may a INGOT SC LTD's opinion and assessment is considered as a suspicious activity such as, but-not-limited-to, a significantly minimal level of trading activity, the withdrawal of funds from said account may not be processed, unless the Customer expressly seeks to terminate the account. In the event of an account termination request, the transaction shall undergo standard processing procedures, taking into full consideration the terms delineated within the Deposit and Withdrawal Policy and other regulations delineated in the legal documents.

In cases involving actual or suspected errors, fraud, unjust enrichment, money laundering, terrorist financing, or any other questionable or irregular activities, as determined by our sole discretion or reported by third parties, including our third-party payment service providers, whether directly or indirectly related to any deposit or withdrawal request, we retain the right to take various actions. These actions may include putting the relevant request on hold for investigation, promptly rejecting the request, halting the account, or closing and liquidating positions, deleting the history, deleting the account, deleting the transaction or adjusting the transaction, offsetting any owed amounts to us or our third-party payment service provider, terminating our relationship with you as per the terms of the Legal documents, or implementing any other measures we deem necessary in accordance with Applicable Regulations, the Legal documents, our Policies, or other applicable terms.

Credit Card Refunds: When a deposit is made using a credit or debit card, and a subsequent request for a chargeback or cancellation is initiated, you may incur a chargeback or cancellation fee imposed by your payment provider. In cases where there is a reasonable suspicion of dishonesty regarding your chargeback or cancellation request, we reserve the right to withhold any pending withdrawal requests until an investigation is carried out by the relevant third-party payment service provider. If, following investigation, the third-party payment service provider determines the chargeback or cancellation request to be dishonest, we retain the prerogative to take one or more of the following actions:

- a) offset any amounts deemed owed to us or our third-party payment service provider;
- b) terminate our association with you in accordance with the legal documents; or
- c) implement any other measures we consider appropriate in compliance with Applicable Regulations, the legal documents, our Policies, or other relevant terms.

If you initiate a deposit or withdrawal request while having an outstanding payment owed to us, we retain the authority to retain the owed amount from the request and apply it as a set-off as stipulated in accordance with the legal documents.
