“INGOT” Risk Disclosure

There is a high amount of risk involved in trading foreign exchange, contracts for difference (CFDs), and other leveraged instruments; thus, it is not recommended for all investors. These products' values are subject to quick fluctuations, which could cause substantial losses that far outweigh your initial investment. You could lose more funds than you invested, so you shouldn't speculate with capital you can't afford to lose. Based on your investing goals, financial position, and needs, you should carefully examine whether trading these products is suitable for you.

The material provided on this website is primarily for general informational purposes and it is not tailored to your particular situation or investing goals. When making investing decisions, you shouldn't depend only on the information presented on this website.

Regarding the suitability of any specific investment, product, or strategy for any individual, INGOT does not offer investment advice or recommendations. This website's opinions, news, analyses, prices, and other information are offered as general market commentary and do not represent investment advice or offer.

Trading with INGOT involves the risk of trading on an online platform. Technical errors such as connection failure, system errors, or data loss may occur. INGOT shall not be responsible for any loss or damage resulting from technical errors, connectivity issues, or data loss.

By opening an account or trading with INGOT, you certify that you have read, comprehended, accepted, and agreed to be bound by this disclosure statement's terms and conditions.

Certain countries, including but not limited to the United States, do not have access to the products offered by INGOT. Moreover, some products or programs may not be supported in some jurisdictions, and therefore, restrictions may apply. Please check with your Account Manager.
